Answer Key (grown-ups)

1. A. On Friday, my aunt and I went to Rosie's Pizza Palace. Capitals: proper nouns & titles Capitalize days (Friday), the word I, and the NAME of a place (Rosie's Pizza Palace). 'my aunt' is not a name, so it stays lowercase.
2. B. uncle Capitals: proper nouns & titles
   After 'my', uncle is just a common noun, so it is lowercase. Use a capital only when it is part of a name, like Uncle Ray.
3. A. Dr. Lopez Capitals: proper nouns & titles
   A title before a name gets a capital, and so does the name: Dr. Lopez.
4. 6 Capitals: proper nouns & titles
   Last (first word), Tuesday (day), I, Wonder (book title), Ms. (title), Kim (name) = 6.
5. leaves Plurals: f to ves
   Change the f to v, then add es: leaf → leaves.
6. knives Plurals: f to ves
   Change the fe to v, then add s: knife → knives.
7. shelves Plurals: f to ves
   Change the f to v, then add es: shelf → shelves.
8. A. loaves Plurals: f to ves
   loaf ends in f: change f to v and add es → loaves.
9. won't Contractions
   will not is special: it becomes won't.
10. couldn't Contractions could not → couldn't. The apostrophe takes the place of the missing letter.
11. they're Contractions
    they are → they're. The apostrophe takes the place of the missing letter.
12. D. won't Contractions will not is a special contraction. It changes to won't.
13. B. them Object pronouns
    Jake and Nora are two people, so use them.
14. B. her Object pronouns
    Maria is one girl. After 'to', use her (not she).
15. B. us Object pronouns
    my brother and me = us (it comes after 'to', so not we).
16. C. him Object pronouns
    Mr. Diaz is one man. After the verb, use him (not he).
17. B. antonyms Synonyms & antonyms
    Synonyms mean the SAME. Antonyms are OPPOSITES. tiny and huge are opposites.
18. A. synonyms Synonyms & antonyms
    Synonyms mean the SAME. Antonyms are OPPOSITES. glad and happy mean the same thing.
19. B. antonyms Synonyms & antonyms
    Synonyms mean the SAME. Antonyms are OPPOSITES. calm and nervous are opposites.
20. A. new Synonyms & antonyms ancient means very old. The opposite is new.
